WITH THE NOMINEES

A FEW BOUQUETS FOR THE NEXT CITY OFFICERS.

S. E. Chapman.

Ada was extremely fortunate in the recent primary in the men who were nominated to manage the affairs of the city during the next two years. Among these she will have a mayor who can be relied upon to watch the interests of the town with the eagle eye of a successful business man and one who by his experience as a member of the city council is particularly fitted for the responsibilities of the mayor's office. Mr. Chapman is a man with a head of his own and when after due deliberation he forms an opinion, he is not afraid to express it, "by gum."

Chas. A. Powers.

For the third time C. A. Powers wins the nomination for police judge. His position is a trying one, for in his court he is both judge and jury. He is called upon to pass on many delicate questions. That he has done his work well and established a reputation for rendering just decisions, is evidenced by the heavy vote he received at this election. People naturally love justice and by their votes they showed that they believe Judge Powers has been faithful to his trust.

R. N. Hounshell.

For several months the town has had a chief of police who has done his duty as he saw it. He has had many difficulties to overcome, but in the face of everything he has made good, and the vote of confidence given him Tuesday was most gratifying. Hounshell stands for a rigid enforcement of the law and his office is in safe hands.

Wilmer B. Jones.

It is not often in this democratic country that a man is honored with three successive elections to an office, and the fact that W. B. Jones has been nominated for another term as city clerk is a fine compliment to him and the high opinion the people have of the manner in which he has filled his office.

James E. Webb.

James E. Webb has filled the office of city attorney for the past two years and has had many trying ordeals to pass through during that time. As the legal adviser of the city council he is an important factor in the government, and his heavy vote is a fine endorsement of his record.

F. C. Sims.

Among the old reliable business men of Ada none ranks higher than F. C. Sims, the next city treasurer. Mr. Sims has been one of the most influential and outspoken members of the city council for the past three years and is familiar with every detail of the administration. His fellow aldermen showed their appreciation of his ability by electing him mayor pro tem and in the absence of the mayor he discharged the duties of that office with credit. Being thoroughly familiar with the affairs of the city he will fit into his new office from the first day.

J. B. Gay.

The office of City assessor is about the most important in the entire administration, for upon the shoulders of that officer rests the responsibility of securing the revenue to run the government. Four good men made the race for that office, and they made excellent fights for the nomination, but J. B. Gay made the landing. His nomination is a good one, for no man is more familiar with conditions and property values than he. Although his office is not an easy one to fill, he can be relied upon to execute his commission with justice to the taxpayers and fidelity to the interests of the city.

J. B. Gotcher.

J. B. Gotcher is slated for another term as street commissioner. His job is a big one, for the streets of Ada are many and the funds of that department are always low. Of course every man in the city thinks his street

MEXICANS FIRE UPON AMERICANS

Presidio, Tex., March 22.—(Via Marfa, Tex., March 22.)—Shortly after the crossing of supplies from Presidio intended for the Mexican troops besieged in Ojinaga, directly across the Rio Grande, had been stopped today, bullets from federal rifles fell among a detachment of United States troops guarding the American side of the river. An explanation has been demanded of General Luque, in command of the Mexican troops.

A report of the firing into the troops is being prepared by Lieut. J. E. Taylor for transmission to Washington. The orders to prevent the crossing of supplies came from United States customs officials.

The ninth day of the siege shows the insurgent lines which surround the city, unbroken. Last night the insurgents routed an outpost and took possession of the trenches 490 yards from the federal artillery encampments.

Reports from Ojinaga are that supplies are running low and besides the garrison of 500 soldiers, 1,000 non-combatants are suffering for want of food.

Several persons have been wounded by bullets which crossed the river. The latest is that a Mexican youth was shot through the thigh while watching a clash between the soldiers and the revolutionists from the American side. Today a mauler bullet tore its way through a circus tent where a performance was in progress.

"Viva!" exclaimed a Mexican clown who was amusing his countrymen. "The soldiers have at least one mark man who can hit a circus tent."

C. S. McCombs, a Scotch soldier of fortune, has been made a captain in the insurgent army in command of twenty-five vaqueros.

Primary Results at Durant.

Durant, Ok., March 22.—In the primary elections here yesterday the following democrats were nominated for city offices: Mayor, A. Neely; Clerk, W. S. Shannon; Treasurer, M. A. Waits; Police Judge N. W. Carter; City Attorney, Sam Kyle; Chief of Police, N. S. Bledsoe. Assessor, R. C. Appel; Street Commissioner, J. L. Bond; School Treasurer, R. L. Crutten; Aldermen, Clint Ethridge, V. E. Kendall, J. A. Moore, V. C. Phillips, C. M. Spell and C. C. Frost; School Trustees, J. R. Taulbee, Ed Gumm, C. C. Hatchett, R. T. Davis, W. D. Coleman.

Printer Inherits Fortune.

Tulsa, Ok., March 22.—"Tex" Evans a printer known the country over, who has been working here for a few days, was notified by wire today that he had fallen heir to a fortune of $30,000 left him by his grandfather, who died in Iowa, March 11.

JUDGE MCKEOWN PASSES ON SOME KNOTTY POINTS

Yesterday Judge McKeown was called upon to pass on some much mooted points raised by Sheriff Tom Smith in a suit to compel the county commissioners to pay several hundred dollars in fees which Smith claimed he was entitled to.

The sheriff contended that the statute allowed ten cents per mile to an officer above his necessary traveling expenses, for bringing fugitives in. He also contended that the statute allowed an officer $1.50 per day for attending courts of record. Under advice of County Attorney Wimbish the commissioners had always refused to allow these claims and an appeal was taken to the district court.

Judge McKeown held that an officer was entitled to the ten cents per mile only when the arrest was made in this state on demand of the state from which the fugitive had escaped and that it did not apply to one who had fled from Oklahoma and was brought back by an officer of this state. In a case of that kind the court ruled that the officer should be allowed his necessary expenses and $3.00 per day.

In the other question he upheld the contention of the county attorney that the $1.50 per day applied only to such times as court was actually in session and not other times. The sheriff contended that the county court was constructively in session at all times, and that bringing a prisoner before the judge constituted a day's attendance.

The case was finally continued and will be tried on facts sometime later.

Democratic Primary at Sulphur.

Sulphur, Ok., March 22.—The results of Tuesday's primary for democratic nominations for city officers are as follows: Mayor, D. J. Kendall 288; E. K. McGinnis 198; J. Y. Schenck 89; City Clerk, Rex W. Chaney, formerly of Bonham, Tex., no opposition. Chief of Police, B. R. Haney 319; Charlie White 231. City Treasurer, Sam Cough 257, T. J. Maxwell 289. Treasurer School Board, D. Wiley 282, J. A. Lemmon 288. Police Judge, Bruce Rawlings 371, W. A. Fox 210. Street Commissioner, J. C. Peak 181, G. W. Tucker 125; John Estes 154, John Adams 116. The races for Mayor, Chief of Police and Street Commissioner were spirited. Capt. Dan Kendall, who has served three terms as Mayor, won easily. He will have strong opposition in C. F. Meadors, candidate on the independent ticket.

FEARS NO TROUBLE WITH JAPANESE

Washington, March 22.—President Taft today held a cordial interview with the Japanese ambassador, Baron Uchida, whom he sent for to confer with him upon the ratification of the new treaty between this country and Japan. He took advantage of the occasion to assure the ambassador that never in the history of the two countries had the relations been so pleasant as they are today; never had talk of war been more absurd.

President Taft expressed pleasure at the opportunity to set at rest once and for all the stories published from time to time in the last two weeks that back of the administration's action in sending troops to the Mexican border was a motive of precaution against some expected treacherous act by Japan. It also was reported that Japan has secured from Mexico a coaling station on the Pacific coast, to be used as a base in attacking the United States.

The president said he was amazed to find, on his return from Augusta, that some of the newspapers had been giving credence to these reports by publishing them in a prominent manner. It was the first he had heard of them and he quickly expressed his regret that such "malicious stories" as he called them, should gain circulation.

Baron Uchida is said to have assured the president that he attached no importance to the reports and had discovered that they emanated from irresponsible sources. The interview lasted for fully half an hour, the president and the ambassador chatting with unusual informality.

MEXICANS THREATEN TROUBLE IN TEXAS

San Antonio, Tex., March 22.—The troops that are being rushed to the Chisos and Terlingua districts have orders to "shoot to kill" all armed marauders and as the latest reports from Chisos indicate that the Mexicans are still threatening the town, the chances for a brush between American soldiers and armed men from across the border seem good.

Orders by Telephone.

Gen. Joseph W. Duncan, commanding the department of Texas, today ordered that the troops of cavalry sent from Marathon to Chisos, where Mexican cattle rustlers have been busy on the American side, keep in touch with the telephone line which runs between Marfa and the border. If necessary, orders can be given over this line for the troops to make a forced march to the disturbed district. Otherwise they are not expected to reach Chisos until Friday. A troop of cavalry from El Paso will relieve this detachment at Marathon.

CHIEF HOUNSHELL PAYS FINE IN JUSTICE COURT

Complaint was filed in the justice court yesterday charging Chief Hounshell with assault and battery on the person of Bars Chapman. He entered a plea of guilty and Judge Brown assessed a fine of $5.00 and costs.

Okmulgee Attorney Dies.

Okmulgee, Ok., March 22.—Saunders B. Cox, a prominent Okmulgee attorney, died here on his forty-ninth birthday. He had been sick about ten days. Mr. Cox left a widow and two children. He was born in Cynthia, Ky.

In yesterday's paper we made a slight error in stating that the News
lost on several candidates in the primary. As a matter of fact the News took a stand in only one case, and the office force was far from being a unit on some of the others. We should have said that the editor lost in several races.

Tomorrow the citizens of Ada will have the opportunity to vote again on the Byrd's Mill water bonds. The whole town will give one mighty sigh of relief when the money is in the treasury and the contract for the work is actually let. A real old time celebration will be in order the day
water first flows through the mains and the enterprise is a real fact instead of a bright and cherished hope.

Booker Washington had long been dropped from the papers as a topic of discussion, but his recent experience in New York will doubtless restore him to the front page for a season. Teddy will have to take a back seat for a short time while the press airs the troubles of Dr. Washington.

Dr. Linebaugh, Educator.

During the week now closing the Board of Trustees of the Oklahoma City College met and elected a faculty for that promising young institution, and it is announced that the doors of the college will be open for business next September. The college is located a mile north of Britton, in the suburbs of Oklahoma City, and the manner in which this institution has been launched is an illustration of the large way Oklahoma people have of doing things. Rev.
N. L. Linebaugh, D. D., a leading minister of the Southern Methodist church, together with Bishop Atkins and several other associates, looked over the situation, and before the public knew what they intended, they had the option on 640 acres of land, occupying a commanding view of Oklahoma City, and, indeed, being the highest point on the Santa Fe railroad between Kansas City and Galveston. This land has been and is being sold, and the proceeds invested in buildings, equipment and endowment of what is proposed shall be one of the strongest, highestgrade educational institutions for young ladies in the Southwest. The main building is now half way up, and the contract will be let right away, it is announced, for two dormitories, so that they will be ready for occupancy when students arrive in September. Convenient communication with the city is afforded by both steam and electric railroads. Oklahoma City's natural gas main runs through the college grounds. The institution has many natural advantages. Its plans have been conceived and are being executed on a scale worthy of the men, the great denomination, the great state that are behind it.

The dominating spirit of this magnificent enterprise from the beginning has been Rev. Dr. N. L. Line-baugh, and it is very befitting therefore that he should be elected to the presidency of the institution, as has just been done. Dr. Linebaugh is not a novice in educational work. During Governor Haskell's administration he has been one of the most useful members of the Board of Regents of the University of Oklahoma. He is a broad-minded, aggressive spirit. He is a bringer of things to pass. Oklahoma City College will succeed.

Among the new advertisers in the News is the firm of Sweatt & Stubblefield. These young men only recently opened up their establishment on East Main street, but they are well known to the citizens of Ada and surrounding country and will do a good business.

Why use cheap can goods when you can say to your grocer send Hales Leader. Save the labels. 296-6td Talking about good show windows, I. Harris is always right up to the notch in that line. Just now he has on display a line of spring hats and suits.

Cox-Lee Mercantile Co. is in the field for a share of your spring trade and are taking the right course in going after it by taking a good sized space in the News. This firm is building up a good trade and will show you every possible courtesy. Call and see the line of goods on sale.

Getting into the habit of reading ads, and of making purchases in the light of such reading on the information and on the impression so gained—is hard for some folks. But getting "out" of such a habit, once formed, would be unthinkable to them!

"Just a Woman's Way," a successful comedy drama by Sidney W. Pascoe to be produced at City Hall opera house tonight tells a strong and affecting story of the troubles of a young wife in defending her hearth and home from the wiles of a scheming woman who has become an inmate of her happy home. The time of the play is two years, and the four acts in which it is produced prove an interesting exposition of the dramatist's ability in accomplishing multum in parvo.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Manuel, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of Newbro's Herpicide, April 6, '39, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head. On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain. Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. ONE DOLLAR BOTTLES GUARANTEED RAMSEY DRUG CO.

NORMAL AND "PROFESSIONALS" PLAY BALL TOMORROW

Much to the disappointment of the normal team and the local fans there will be no ball game tomorrow. For some reason the Tishomingo team could not be on hand at this time, but the game will be played at some future date not yet fixed.

Although the Tishomingo team will not be on hand, another game has been arranged with the "retired professionals" of Ada. In the two previous games of the season with this team, the normal boys tied the score in one and won in the other. After all there will be something in store for the fans.

The line-up will be as follows:
Professionals—Clyde Kaiser, catcher; John Kaiser, short stop; Somer Jones, first base; Ernest Reed, second base; Konken, third base. Oscar Lewis, pitcher; Dug Ashberry, center field; Ernest Rader, left field; Geo. Davidson right field; Bert Liece, substitute.

SOROSIS

Will present, Saturday, March 25, 1911, at 8 p. m. Dr. A. Grant Evans in his popular, magnificently illustrated lecture upon

"WESTMINSTER ABBEY"

His vivid descriptions, aided by a series of fine stereopticon views, will enable you to visit in imagination, this magnificent structure, where lie the remains of the greatest of the Anglo Saxon race, and where many of the most dramatic events of English history were enacted.

Dr. Evans is president of the State University of Oklahoma, and the citizens of Ada should hear this lecture. Remember the proceeds of this and other lectures, to be given by Sorosis will be used as an education fund.

Admission: Adults 25c; Children under 12, 15c.
Tickets on sale at Ramsey's Drug Store. 299-3td

Tomorrow's bond election will be conducted a little differently from an ordinary election. Under the state law none but those whose names appear on the city tax rolls for 1910 will be permitted to vote.
